Bus Trip to Landcraft & Cooperage Inn

Tuesday, September 19, 2017

Bus leaves the Garden at 8:00am and returns approximately 6:00pm

Fee: Members: $90, Non-members/guests: $105

Join us on our bus trip as we tour (at 10:00am) one of the most unusual and beautiful gardens on Long Island – Landcraft Environments in Mattituck. Having seen an increase in gardening with tender, exotic and tropical plants, the owners have been in the forefront of this gardening trend and constantly grow and cultivate new cultures from all over the world. “To enter this exquisite Mattituck garden is to experience the wonder of India, the flora of the Himalayas, and the landscape of Japan without leaving the North Fork”. The property features a 4-acre garden with a hideaway tiki hut, two ponds, a 12-seat handcrafted dining table, and hundreds of local and exotic plants from around the world.

At 12:30pm, we will board the bus and head to the Cooperage Inn in Baiting Hollow, for lunch. Our menu consists of a green salad, an entrée choice of chicken breast, thick cut pork chop, Atlantic salmon, Rigatoni a la Vodka, or flat iron steak. Chocolate Mousse is our dessert along with coffee or tea. Unlimited soft drinks are available, and a cash bar for those who wish an alcoholic drink. Please indicate your entrée choice on the form.

After lunch, we will board the bus and head to Briemere Farms for a quick visit to purchase their famous, delicious pies and baked goods.

The bus leaves Clark Botanic Garden promptly at 8:00am and returns at approximately 6:00pm. The trip goes forward “rain or shine,” and the cost is $90 for members and $105 for non-members or guests.

Please call me at (516) 484-8603 with any questions and/or for further details. I look forward to seeing you on Tuesday, September 19th.
