The Poets Celebrate Clark Garden's 50th!

Linda Opyr – Nassau County Poet Laureate 2011-13

“Fireside Chat” – Sunday, March 24, 2019 at 1 p.m.

Fee: $12 for Members; $15 for Non-Members. Refreshments served.

Linda Opyr, Nassau County Poet Laureate 2011-13, is the author of seven collections of poetry. Her poems have appeared in numerous anthologies, journals, magazines and newspapers, including The Hudson Review, Poetry Ireland Review, The Atlanta Review, The Paterson Literary Review, and The New York Times. In 2018 her poems appeared in journals in Ireland, the UK and the United States.

Once again, Linda has reached out to the poetry community and its friends to join her in another poetry reading at Clark, asking them to focus on gardens and/or Nature in honor of Clark Botanic Garden's 50th Anniversary. Her programs at Clark in the past five years, in anticipation of National Poetry Month in April, have filled the room to capacity. Those who attended were amazed at the hidden talents of some of our “neighbors.” Perhaps, you would like to read one of your poems at this program, and of course, we welcome you. On the other hand, if you think you don't “like poetry”, give it a chance and enjoy a wonderful afternoon. You might be surprised when your neighbor stands up and reads the poem he or she created.
