Sunday Strolls in the Garden Walks

SUNDAY, JULY 25 – 1 PM

The Trees of Clark Botanic Garden

The specimen trees and shrubs at Clark Botanic Garden give the property the green beauty and serenity which visitors admire. Some may date from the days of Fanny Dwight and Grenville Clark or the days of the Brooklyn Botanic Garden. Stroll the paths with noted horticulturist,

Dr. Jonathan Lehrer, Chair at Farmingdale State College, Department of Ornamental Horticulture and Landscape Design.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 15 – 1 PM

Amazing Annuals

Annuals provide spectacular pops of interest and color in any garden. Join Bonnie Klein, TNH Horticulturist, as she highlights the many beautiful annuals used in the beds and borders, with an emphasis on the AAS selections.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 – 1 PM

All About the Birds and the Bees

Join FDCMG nature educator Glenn Aldridge as he leads you around the garden, opening your eyes to the wonders of nature, much as he does with the many school groups he has hosted over the years.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 3 – 1 PM

Honey and Hives

Our new beekeeper, Don Peterson of 3Bees Apiary, will talk about the honeybee hives in the garden. You will learn about the amazing life cycle of these bees, their importance in our world and how our famous honey is harvested. Honey from the hives will be available for purchase.

All participants will be required to wear a face covering and observe social distance guidelines. Restrooms are open in Clark House, but no refreshments will be served. The Shop will be open. BTW: All our staff and volunteers are fully vaccinated—we hope you are too!

Complete and mail in registration form below.

Be sure to visit the garden shop, featuring new and beautiful items, when attending the workshops.
